

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DAN PALLOTTA challenges the way society thinks about charity, giving, and the non-profit sector.

- He is the author of the best-selling title, Uncharitable - How Restraints on Nonprofits Undermine Their Potential.
- His iconic TED talk is one of the top 100 most viewed in which he says, "Too many nonprofits are rewarded for how little they spend, not for what they get done."
- He invented the multi-day charitable event industry with the AIDS Rides and Breast Cancer 3-Days. These events altered the landscape of options for ordinary individuals seeking to make an extraordinary difference.
